SIX PRINTING HOUSES TO GET OUT

35,000 BALLOTS TO BE USED.

MANDAMUS PROCEEDINGS MUST FIRST BE DECIDED.

The Supreme Court Will Act Imme diately-Hon. "Jack" Harris Had a Glorious Meeting-List of Republicans Meetings -Miscellaneous.

County Clerk Daniels has completed the work of compiling the county ticket, and the contract for printing the official ballots has been awarded to the following papers: Kansas City (Kas.) Gazette, Kansas City Tribune, Armourdale Press, Argentine Republic and Rosedale Commercial. The tickets will not be printed until after Tuesday owing to the mandamus proceedings now pending in the supreme court and the court of common pleas. Mr. Daniels completed the work of getting up the local ticket Friday night, and yesterday he let the contracts for the printing of the same. There will be $5,000 ballots printed for Wy andotte county, out of which number 9,000 are to be used as sample ballots.

The official ballots this year will be as large as a small newspaper, and will cost the county a good sum of money for the printing. According to the contract, the county ticket will cost $27.50 per 1,000, while the township tickets will cost the near little sum of $40.50 for every 1,000.

The Australian ballot law provides that the official tickets must be in the hands of the county clerk five days previous to the election. According to this, the ballots will be in the hands of County Clerk Daniels Thursday. It is understood that the copy for the ballots will be furnished the printers to-night and that the matter will be set up and held until the two mandamus suits are disposed of.

The mandamus proceeding in the supreme court will be heard to-morrow. This is to compel the county clerk to place the names of the candidates whose nomina-tions were declared invalid by the county election board Wednesday upon the official Yesterday James F. Getty filed man damus proceedings in the common pleas court against County Clerk Daniels to compel that official to place his name upon official ballot in the column with the other Republican nominees of this count under the appellation of Republican party. He alleges in his petition that Mr. Daniels has placed his name upon the official ballot in a column other than the regular Republican column. Judge Holt granted a temporary writ and will hear the argu-ments Tuesday. Should either of the mandamus proceedings be decided in favor o plaintiffs, Mr. Daniels will cause the printers to make any changes ordered by

TWAS A GRAND MEETING.

Hon. "Jack" Harris and J. G. Crawford Packed the Wigwam.

The big tent in Huron place was crowded to its utmost capacity last night with repesentative citizens, who had assembled for the sole purpose of enlightening themselves on the issues of the great campaign. The principal speakers of the evenng were Hon. "Jack" Harris and John G. Crawford, of New Hampshire, and for two solid hours these distinguished gentlemen expounded Republican doctrine in an able

The meeting was presided over by Rev. James G. Dougherty, and after a few in-teresting remarks he introduced the first speaker of the evening, Hon. J. P. Harris, Republican nominee for congress from the Second district. Mr. Harris is quite a fa worite with the people of this community, and as he was surrounded by old soldiers, who served as vice presidents, he was right in his element. The next congressman is a logical talker and speaks direct from a Republican standpoint. He showed how the opposition was trying to mislead the people of the United States by its free silver dodge, and compared it with other political schemes that the Democrats have heretofore perpetrated on the masses. His remarks brought forth plenty of applause remarks brought forth plenty of applause and created much enthusiasm.

When Mr. Crawford faced the large audience he was greeted with cheers. The New Hampshire speaker proved the right man in the right place, and his address took well with his listeners. He is an able talker. During his address he was often interrupted by applause. The addresses delivered by both men were vote getters.

Messrs. Harris and Crawford were met at the hotel by a brigade of old soldiers, who escorted them to the wigwam behind escorted them to the wigwam behind

DEDICATED AGAIN.

St. Paul Episcopal Church Was Reopened Last Friday Night.

The St. Paul Episcopal church was, for the second time in its history, dedicated to worship Friday night, and in commemoration of the reopening of the church at its new site special services will be held all this week. Last night's services consisted of a sermon by the Rev. Keating Smith, M.A., rector of the church at Westport, and solos by the Misses Loudon and Miss Edith Pell. Professor Kreiser performed at the organ.

At 11 o'clock this morning the very Rev. Dean Duffy will preach on "The Cathol-icity of the Church." Soloists, Miss Lillian Welsh and Miss Hattie Jones. Rev. John Bennett of Fort Scott will deliver a ser-mon in the evening. His subject will be "The Apostolicity of the Church." Miss Villettee Waldron and Miss Elizabeth May will be the soloists, while Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Brown and Wallace S. Reynolds will render selections on the violin.

street, met with a peculiar accident yesterday morning while at work in his cistern.
Mr. Rial was fixing the sides of the cistern and was standing on a ladder when it suddenly gave way and let him fall into the water. There was about fifteen feet of rater in the cistern and the unfortunate man was just going under for the third time when his wife saw him and threw a rope, which he held on to until she could get help. Councilman Buchhalter, who lives near by, was called and succeeded in drawing the man out, more dead than alive. A physician was called and attended him. He will recover.

Myrtle Slusser Asks to Be Separated From Her Husband.

Myrtle Slusser brought suit in the dis trict court yesterday against William Slusser for divorce. She alleges that they were married in this city on October 14, 1895, and that eight days after their union her husband deserted her, and she has since lived in abandonment. She charges the defend-ant with gross neglect and failure to provide. He refuses to return to her and therefore she has decided to secure a legal

THE NEWS AT LEAVENWORTH. Two Negroes Arrested for Buncoing a Farmer-Professor Simons

Dead-Miscellaneous.

Detectives Jones and Sutton yesterday afternoon arrested two colored men named John Denny and Paul Andrews on the charge of buncoing an aged farmer named John Schultwig, who resides near Lansing. One of the men had thirty-two dice in his pockets, when searched, and other traps to indicate a propensity for gambling. The men were jailed.

Professor Simons Dead. Professor Francis Simons, 74 years of age, died last evening at his home in this city, after a lingering illness of several weeks. Professor Simons was one of Leavenworth's pioneer citizens and had a wide reputation as a teacher of music, His fame as a popular instructor was not confined to Leavenworth or to Kansas. He leaves a widow, two grown sons and two grown daughters.

000-Accident in 1891. James Childs brought suit in the circuit court yesterday against the Missouri Pacific railroad for $25,000 damages as the result of injuries received in 1891. The petitioner alleges that in the month of November, 1891, he was employed as a freight brakeman by the Missouri Pacific railroad. On the night of November 10, while in the discharge of his duty, he was standing on a box car. The train was en route from the Union station to Grand avenue and necessarily had to pass under the Hannibal bridge. The plaintin alleged that he was struck by the bridge and scraped off to the ground. His skull was fractured, his thigh broken and his hearing permanently impaired, so that he cannot get employment.
